

Just the facts about the Streetsboro City Schools

About us

- 2,200 students are currently enrolled in grades Preschool through 12.
- A diverse student body combines many backgrounds, talents and cultures.
- Approximately 160 serve on the teaching staff and 130 on the classified staff.

What makes us special?

- At Wait Primary, all-day kindergarten is offered tuition-free for all students.
- Campus Elementary rated “Excellent” for four straight years and Streetsboro High School for two years.
- At Defer Intermediate, Academic Content Standards are integrated into music and art classes.
- Middle School recognized as an exemplary middle school by the Ohio Middle School Association.
- High school students operate television and radio stations, as well as an award-winning newspaper.
- A wide variety of sports teams and co-curricular activities, including band, Treble Ensemble, science club, Future Teachers of America and National Honor Society, are open to high school students.
- A continuum of support is available for children with special needs.

About our community

- Official population estimated at 14,185.
- Accessible to the Ohio Turnpike and Interstate 480, Streetsboro is located 20 miles from Akron and 30 miles from Cleveland.
- Streetsboro is one of the fastest growing cities in Cleveland/Akron area and Ohio.